

Juneteenth Art for Kids

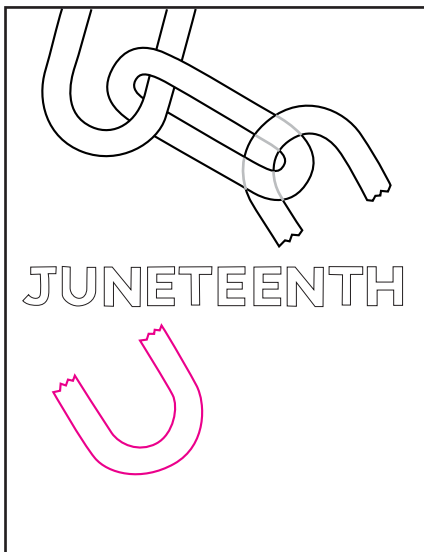

1. Draw a large chain shape going off the top of the page.

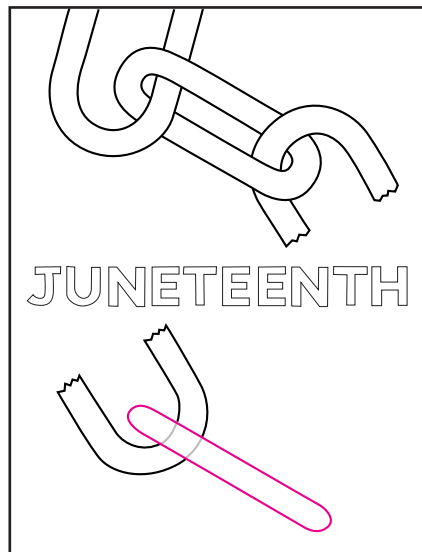

2. Add a link that overlaps it.

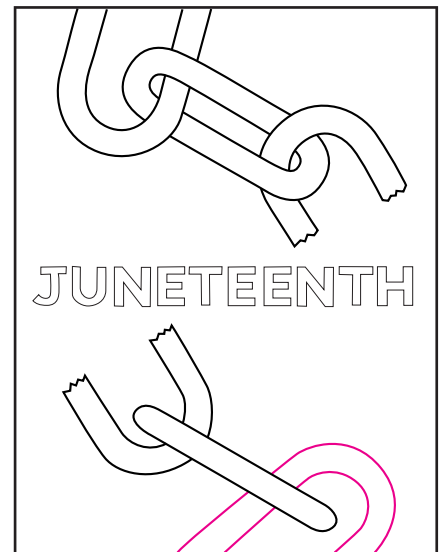

3. Erase the gray lines. Draw part of a broken chain that overlaps.

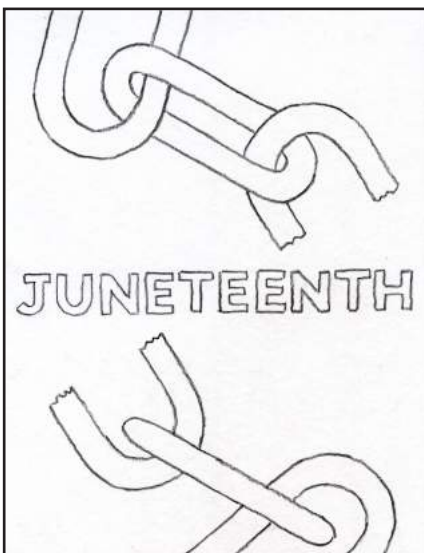

4. Erase the gray lines. Draw part of a broken chain on the bottom.

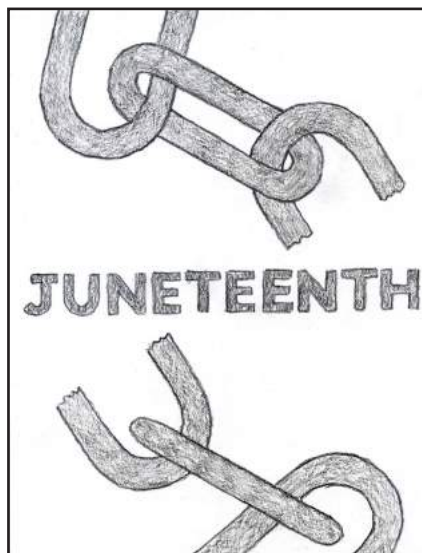

5. Add an overlapping side view of a chain. Erase the gray lines inside.

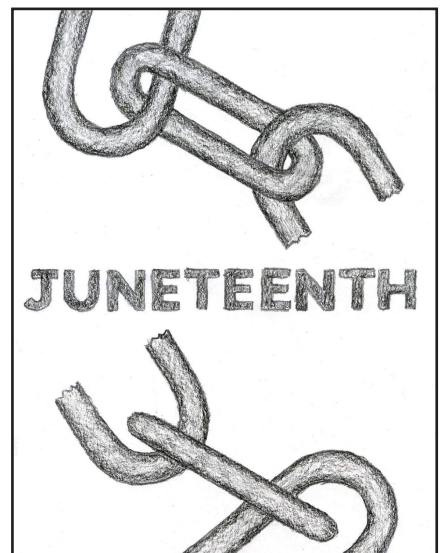

6. Draw another chain behind the side view one.

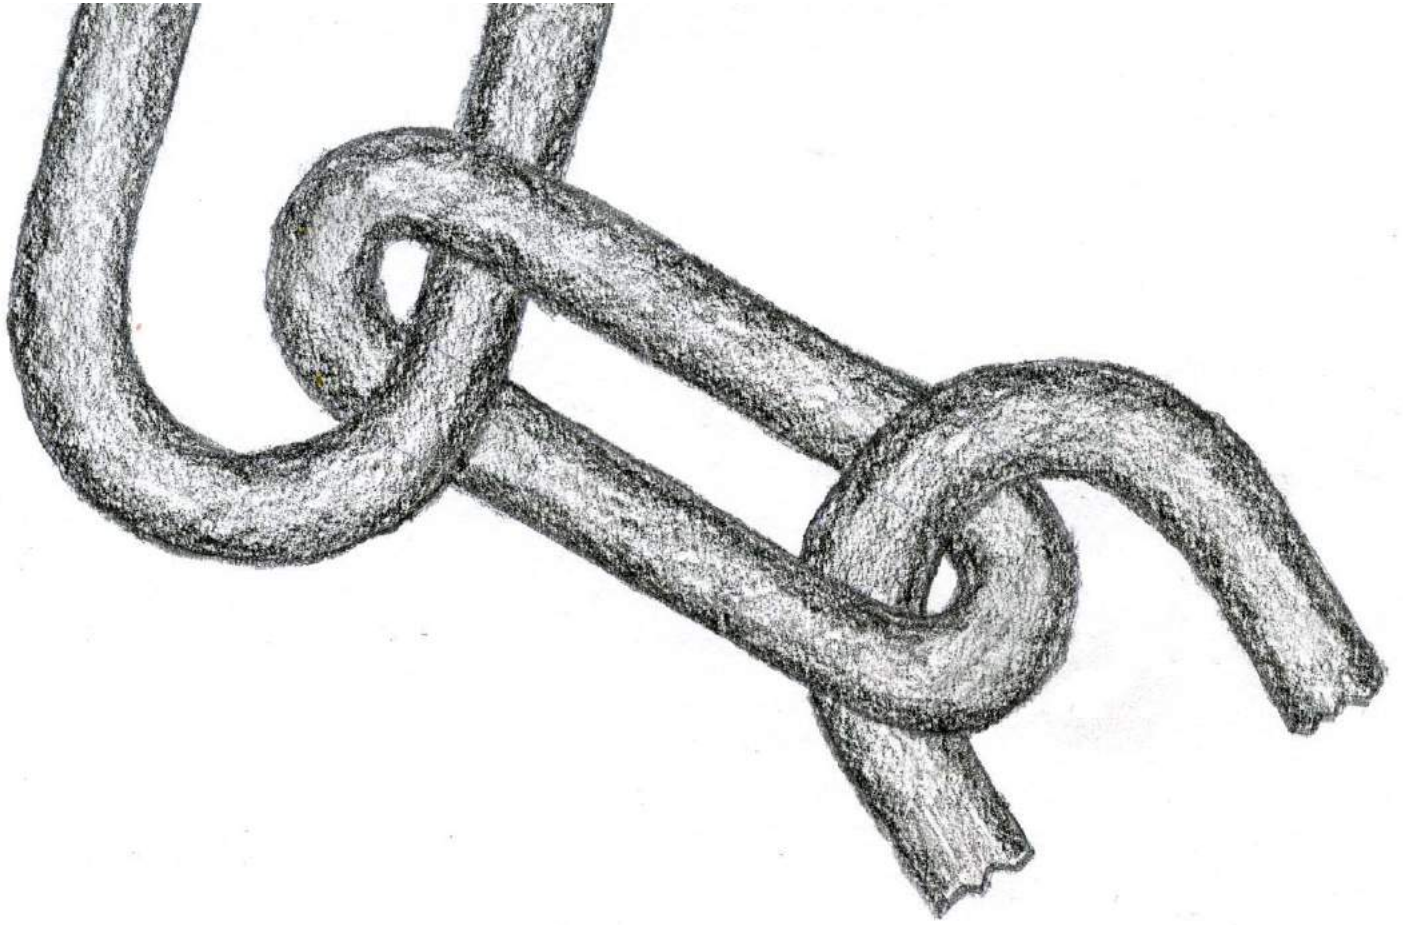

7. Trace the letters so they have a dark pencil edge too.

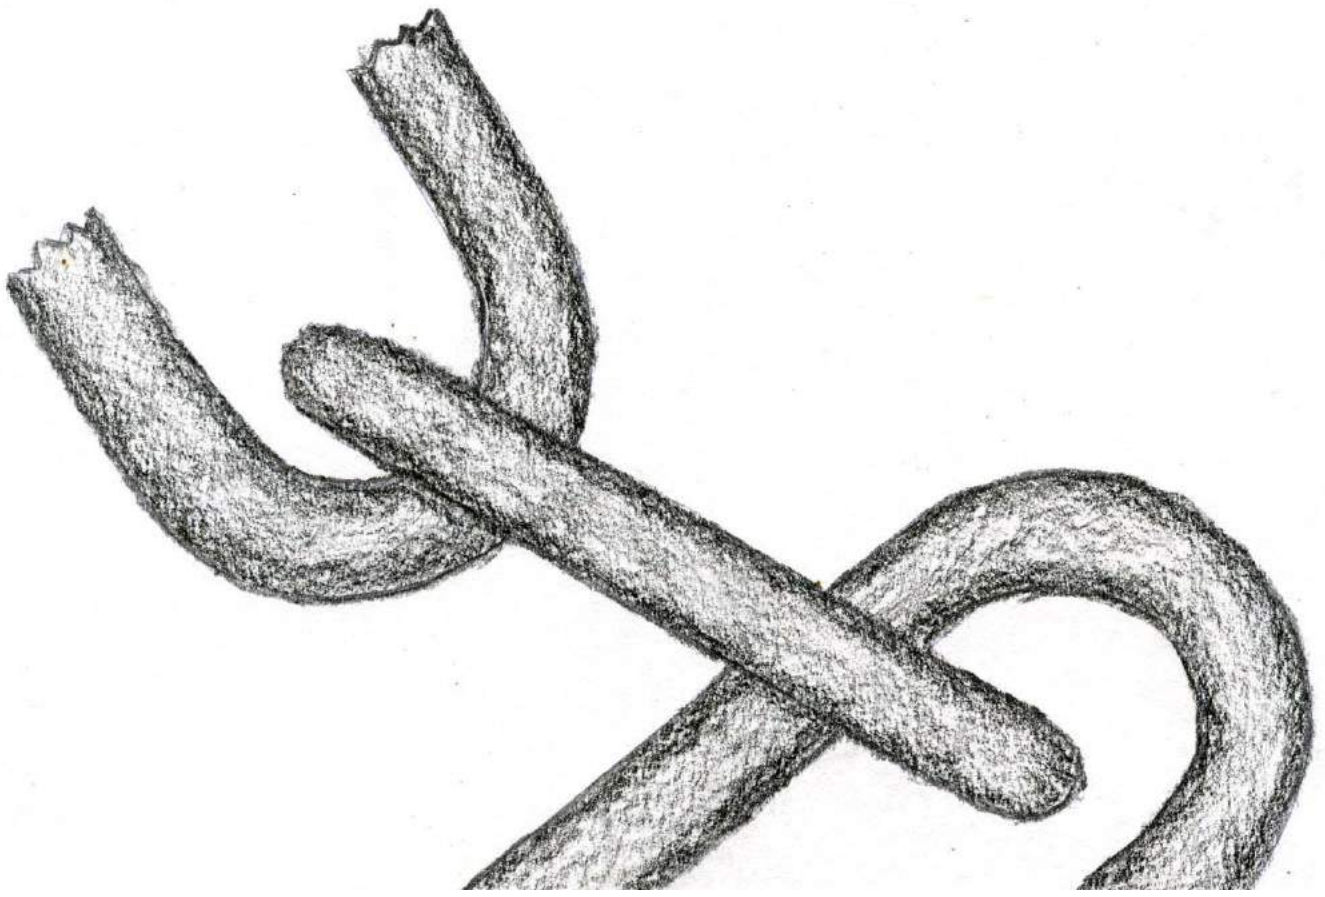

8. Fill in all the letters and chain with an even shade of gray pencil color.

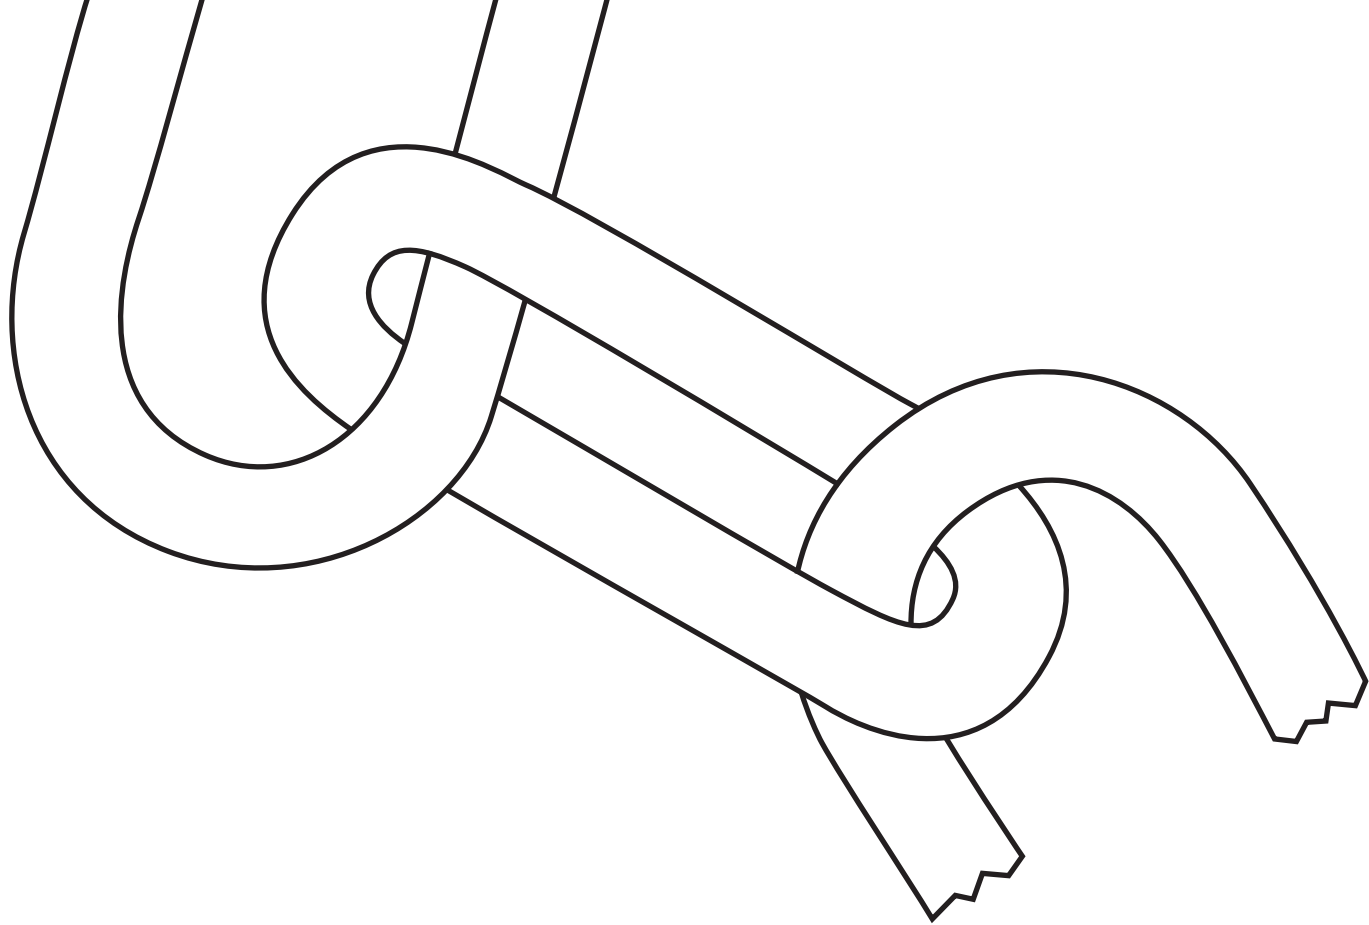

9. Go back and make the chain edges darker so they look more dimensional.
